

POSSIBLE SCAM RE: DOG LICNESES

Animal Control has received information that person(s) identifying themselves as Animal Control, are going to homes inquiring about animal licenses. The suspicious person(s) were reportedly dressed in professional clothing (shirt and tie) and showed a lanyard with identification.

Please be advised that these are NOT Animal control employees.

A census will be done sometime after May 1, 2016, where Animal Control Officers will go house to house, but the employees will show identification and will be wearing a mandated Animal Control uniform

If someone approaches your home inquiring about licenses (prior to May 1, 2016), please call 9-1-1 to report it to your local police department and Animal Control at (810) 732-1660.
