

SECTION XXVII – FIRE ALARM

A. (860.240) False fire alarm

No person shall knowingly and willfully commits 1 or more of the following:

- (a) Raise a false alarm of fire at any gathering or in any public place.
- (b) Ring any bell or operate any mechanical apparatus, electrical apparatus or combination thereof, for the purpose of creating a false alarm of fire.
- (c) Raise a false alarm of fire orally, by telephone or in person.

B. (750.241) Disobedience of order or rule of firefighter at fire; hindrance, obstruction, endangerment, or interference with person engaged in operation, installation, or maintenance of public service facility

- (1) Any person who, while in the vicinity of any fire, willfully disobeys any reasonable order or rule of the officer commanding any fire department at the fire, when the order or rule is given by the commanding officer or a firefighter there present, is guilty of a misdemeanor.